- 11.4. Domain Names may be registered for a period from one year to ten years.
- 11.5. Domain Names can be renewed at any time during their term for a period of one to ten years.
- 11.6. Domain Names can be transferred from one Registrant to another eligible Registrant. Domain Names can be transferred from one accredited Registrar to another accredited Registrar. Contacts and hosts can be modified at any time.
- 11.7. Domain Names can be deleted at any time upon Registrant's request. A Domain Name cannot be deleted if it has child nameservers associated to other Domain Names.
- 11.8. Registry Operator offers the mandatory Trademark Claims Service as offered by the Trademark Clearing house (also TMCH, www.trademark-clearinghouse.com). If a Domain Name is an Identical Match (as defined in the Guidelines of the TMCH) to a mark registered with the TMCH, the Applicant receives a notification containing more details on the mark. By continuing with the Registration of the Domain Name Applicant confirms that
 - 11.8.1. he has received notification that the mark(s) is included in the Clearinghouse;
 - 11.8.2. he has received and understood the notice; and
 - 11.8.3. to the best of the Applicant's knowledge, the registration and use of the requested Domain Name will not infringe on the rights that are the subject of the notice.

If the Domain Name is registered the holder(s) of the marks will be notified of the registration.

12. Enforcement of Policies

In case of violations of Registry Policies (including violation of eligibility criteria or community related restrictions) the following enforcement procedures apply:

12.1. Notification of Policy violations - Point of Contact

Registry Operator maintains an email address as point of contact for information about potential violations of the Registry Policies. If Registry Operator receives such notification or is informed otherwise of a potential violation of the Policy it will undertake the necessary steps to evaluate complaints and to ascertain any Policy violations.

12.2. Interim Measures

During the notice period, Registry Operator may - without establishing any obligation to do so or liability to any other party - suspend, cancel, delete or otherwise alter or amend the respective Domain Name registration as deemed appropriate to reduce the effect of the Policy violation.

12.3. Opportunity to Correct or Respond

If reasonable, Registry Operator notifies Registrar or Registrant of the alleged Policy violation and gives them the opportunity to remedy the violation or to respond to the allegations. Notice periods should be oriented to the following scheme:

- 12.3.1. If the whois-data appears to be incorrect or incomplete, Registrant shall be given a thirty (30) days' notice period to correct such data
- 12.3.2. In other cases of a Policy violation the Registrant shall be given a fifteen (15) days' notice period to comply with the relevant rules of the Policy.
- 12.3.3. If the violation constitutes an imminent threat to third parties' rights, the stability of the domain name system or the registry or if the violation cannot be remedied a notice period may be inappropriate.

12.4. Decision of Registry Operator

If Registry Operator concludes that the Registration or use of the Domain Name violates the Registry Policies, Registry Operator may take the appropriate measures, in particular the measures specified in Section 14.

In case of violations of the Anti-Abuse-Policy the Registry Operator reserves the rights as set out in the Anti-Abuse-Policy.

If Registry Operator receives no or insufficient response within the notice period Registry Operator may revoke the Domain Name registration without any further notice.

Decisions of the Registry Operator are subject to the right of the concerned party to judicial review at the competent courts.

13. Alternative Dispute Resolution

- 13.1. All registrations of Domain Names in the Top-Level-Domain are subject to Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) as required by ICANN under the following Policies:

14.1.11. to correct mistakes made by the registry or any registrar in connection with a registration;

14.1.12. ICANN's request or to enforce ICANN requirements as amended from time to time;

14.1.13. Failure to pay the registration fees; or

14.1.14. as otherwise provided in the Registry-Registrar Agreement and/or the Registrar-Registrant Agreement.

14.2. Further rights of the Registry Operator to deny, cancel, or transfer any Registration or transaction, or place any Domain Name(s) on registry lock, hold, especially in compliance with the Anti-Abuse-Policy remain unaffected.

14.3. Registry Operator reserves the right to prohibit the transfer of a domain name at any time in order to preserve the status of a registration during a court proceeding or alternative dispute resolution proceeding concerning the legitimacy of the registration of the respective Domain Name.

15. Limitation of Liability, Indemnification

15.1. TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED BY MANDATORY LAW, REGISTRY OPERATOR, THEIR AFFILIATES, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, SUBCONTRACTORS AND AGENTS (HEREINAFTER PARTIES) SHALL ONLY BE LIABLE IN CASE OF GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILFUL MISCONDUCT. IN NO EVENT SHALL ANY OF THE PARTIES BE HELD LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF PROFITS, RESULTING FROM OR RELATED TO REGISTRATION OR USE OF THE DOMAIN NAME OR TO THE USE OF THE REGISTRY OPERATOR'S SYSTEM OR REGISTRY OPERATORS WEBSITE (EVEN IF IT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSS OR DAMAGES), INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO DECISIONS TAKEN BY THE REGISTRY OPERATOR TO REGISTER OR NOT TO REGISTER THE DOMAIN NAME INCLUDING THE CONSEQUENCES OF ITS DECISIONS.

15.2. TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED TO UNDER MANDATORY LAW, THE PARTIES' AGGREGATE LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES SHALL IN ANY CASE BE LIMITED TO THE FEES PAID BY THE APPLICANT IN RELATION TO THE APPLICATION CONCERNED.

15.3. THE APPLICANT SHALL HOLD THE PARTIES HARMLESS FROM CLAIMS FILED OR DISPUTES INITIATED BY THIRD PARTIES, AND SHALL COMPENSATE THE PARTIES FOR ANY COSTS OR EXPENSES INCURRED OR DAMAGES FOR WHICH THEY MAY BE HELD LIABLE AS A RESULT OF THIRD PARTIES TAKING ACTION AGAINST IT ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE APPLICATION FOR OR THE REGISTRATION OR USE OF THE DOMAIN NAME BY THE APPLICANT INFRINGES THE RIGHTS OF THE PARTY.

16. Required Information, Whois

16.1. Registry Operator is required to provide a WHOIS-look-up service in accordance with Specification 4 of the Registry Agreement.

Registrant is obliged to provide current, accurate and complete WHOIS-information and update the information to ensure it remains current, complete and accurate.

16.2. Registry Operator will store the information provided by the Registrars for the purpose of the registration and make it publically available in the WHOIS-database. Registrant authorizes Registry Operator to make personal data, along with other technical data, accessible in the WHOIS-database on its website.

16.3. Further details can be found in the WHOIS-Policy.

17. Miscellaneous

17.1. Registry Operator may publish interpretive guidelines on its website regarding the terms of this Policy.

17.2. Registry operator may in accordance with the Registry Agreement modify this Policy or introduce further regulations or policies from time to time. Modifications will take effect at the time they are published on the Registry Operator's website and ICANN's website

17.3. Registry Policies shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the place where the Registry Operator has its principal office without giving effect to the rules on conflicts of law. All disputes arising out of or in connection with the Registry Policies shall be referred to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court at the location of the principal office of the Registry Operator.

17.4. If any part of this Policy should turn out to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of this Policy shall remain valid and enforceable. The invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed, as far as legally possible, replaced by a provision that comes nearest to the sense and purpose of this Policy, taking into account all other applicable rules and policies.
